

Underground explosions were used to create the Cinder Lakes Crater Field. This field is a re-creation of a lunar surface found in the region Mare Tranquillitatis, where Apollo 11 lunar module landed.