

Impact craters illustrate relative age of planets surface

Cratered Highlands (Noahcian)

Lunae Planum (Hesperian)

Northeast Tharsis (Amazonian)

Three areas of Mars showing ancient, intermediate and young surfaces. Each panel is 500 km (312 miles) tall.